The Grand Junction Fire Department responded to a report of fire at the car wash east of K-Mart with 5 units and 15 personnel. First unit on scene, E-12, reported fire in the building on the west side and were making a quick attack on the fire. The fire started inside the building near a doorway the west side of the building and extended into the attic area. The main fire was quickly knocked down but the attic extension took until 2:45 AM to be completely extinguished. The building was used as a car wash and has been unoccupied for some time.

Damage is estimated at $20,000.00. There were no injuries due to the fire. Cause is under investigation at this time.
