Become a Police Department Volunteer!

Attend the June 9th Open House at Mesa Mall

(Grand Junction, CO) – Individuals of all ages and skills are invited stop by the Grand Junction Police Department's Volunteer Recruitment Open House on Saturday, June 9th from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Mesa Mall Clock Court, and learn about volunteer opportunities.

“Volunteers are an essential part of the Police Department's ability to respond to the public's safety needs. We need volunteers with a variety of skills and most of our positions have flexible days and hours,” said Volunteer Services Coordinator Judy Shormann.

Current volunteer positions that are available include:

- Professional Standards Assistant
- Website Production Assistant
- Neighborhood Watch Facilitator
- Radar Trailer Placement Technician
- Counter Personnel (Mesa Mall)
- Communications Assistant (Investigations)
- Victim Assistance Program Volunteer
- Records Support Assistant
- Pawn Slip Technician
- Seniors and Law Enforcement Together (SALT) Volunteers
- Mail Distribution Assistant

For questions about the Volunteer Services Program or the June 9th Open House, contact Judy Shormann at 244-3580.
