PRESS RELEASE

Attempted Murder Suspect Garrett Kulp Arrested Overnight

(Grand Junction, CO) – Grand Junction Police have arrested attempted murder suspect Garrett Lee Kulp, who has been on the run from law enforcement for more than a month. Kulp, age 23 of Grand Junction, is suspected of firing shots at the victim, 22-year-old Julius Wilson on June 21st. Wilson and Kulp apparently had argued that day and Kulp fired one shot toward Wilson before leaving the scene. Wilson was not injured.

A warrant was issued the next day for Kulp's arrest with a $200,000 bond for Attempted First Degree Murder. Based on intelligence gathered by the GJPD, officers located Kulp and arrested him at 2713 B 1/2 Road #16 in the early morning hours of August 7th. Kulp was arrested and booked into the Mesa County Jail.
