Double Stabbing at 1333 N. 13th Street Results in Two Arrests

(Grand Junction, CO) – Two Grand Junction men have been arrested in connection with an early morning stabbing at an apartment complex at 1333 N. 13th Street. Russell Lyles, age 39 (DOB 07-11-68), and Brian Bain, age 53 (DOB 04-18-54), were arrested and remanded to the Mesa County Jail late this morning for Assault and Felony Menacing.

Shortly before 2:45 a.m. today, 911 dispatch received a call of a dispute between neighbors. An investigation showed that Lyles, who has been living temporarily in apartment #6, was confronted by Bain who lives in apartment #7, over loud music. The disagreement escalated and both Bain and Lyles brandished bladed weapons at each other, striking each other and causing injuries.

Both men had multiple stab wounds. Both were treated and released from two different area hospitals, then interviewed by Grand Junction Police detectives and arrested.

The investigation into this incident is on-going.
