PRESS RELEASE

Victim Identified in Orchard Mesa Shooting

(Grand Junction, CO) – The Mesa County Coroner’s Office has completed an autopsy and next of kin notification for Timothy D. Pace, age 25, of Grand Junction. The Coroner’s Office says Pace’s manner of death is homicide and the cause of death is a gunshot wound.

Shortly before 6:00 p.m. on October 23, 2007, officers with the Grand Junction Police Department responded to Pace’s address at 307 Acoma Drive, #B, on a report of a suicide. Further investigation revealed that Pace was allegedly shot with a handgun by 23-year-old Yancy Harris, who was jailed on the charge of Manslaughter.

The investigation is on-going (case #07-070271).
