

Development Reviews

The Real Estate Division employs the City Surveyor to review proposed subdivisions—as well as other applications that come through the Community Development Department,—for errors and statutory compliance on Federal, State, and local levels. Errors can be difficult for landowners to correct after a subdivision becomes official record.

The City Surveyor also participates in maintaining the City Zoning and development code to ensure its statutory compliance.