

Greg Trainor,
Utility & Street
Systems Director, has been with the City since 1986.

Graduated from Colorado
State University with a BA in History and Political Science and subsequently graduated from Brigham
Young University with a
Masters of Public Administration.

Greg came to the City with previous experience in both the public and private sectors:

- Project Manager for Taylor Draw Reservoir and Hydroelectric Project for the Colorado River Water Conservation District
- Battlement Mesa New Town Development for Atlantic Richfield Company (ARCO)
- Town Manager for Town of Rangely, Colorado
- Assistant to Utility Director for City of Colorado Springs

Affiliations:

- American Water Works Association, Rocky Mountain Section
- Colorado Water and Wastewater Utility Councils
- Gunnison Basin-Grand Valley Water Forum
- Colorado Water Workshop, Advisory Committee
- Grand Mesa Slopes Special Management Area, Advisory Committee, (1993-present)
- Friends of Westwater Canyon, President (1996-present)