NEWS RELEASE

Death Investigation

(Grand Junction, CO)- The Grand Junction Police Department is investigating the death of a woman in her thirties, whose body was found on a bench in Emerson Park this morning. Just after 5am, a person in the park flagged down a passing sheriff's deputy and reported the woman's death. That deputy then notified us.

We are currently investigating, and so far we have not found any obvious signs of foul play. The Mesa County Coroner's Office is also investigating, and will release the woman's identity once that investigation is complete and the woman's family has been notified.
