NEWS RELEASE

Stolen Political Signs

(Grand Junction, CO)- The Grand Junction Police Department is investigating several reports of stolen or vandalized political signs throughout the city.

This week "Citizens for a Safer Grand Junction" reported three of their signs stolen during the last week. The signs are 4 feet by 6 feet, and cost about $200 each. So far this month we have also received three other reports involving the theft of political signs. We have also received reports, or our officers have observed, the defacing of various political signs throughout the city.

We are asking anyone with information about these crimes to call Crime Stoppers at 241-7867.
