Media Release

Grand Junction is Denver Broncos Country!

GRAND JUNCTION, CO September 17, 2008 – Grand Junction has been chosen as one of eight locations across the state whose fans truly bleed orange and blue!

As part of their Broncos Country Flag Campaign, the Denver Broncos Football Club will visit Grand Junction on Wednesday, September 24 from 2:00 to 3:30 p.m. at Stocker Stadium at the corner of 12th and North in Lincoln Park to thank fans for their support.

“I’ve always been amazed and humbled by the tremendous support we receive from our fans,” said Broncos owner Pat Bowlen. “We know that when we take the field, we represent not just the Denver Broncos organization but the entire city of Denver, state of Colorado, Rocky Mountain region and other proud citizens of Broncos Country all around the world.”

“I wish we could bring the entire team, but the players and coaches are all busy getting ready for the season. Hopefully the folks will still enjoy what we can do this time of year and know how much we appreciate them.”

Bring your Broncos spirit and join us in showing them they made the right call! The event is open to the public and free of charge. Attendees will have the chance to meet Ring of Fame member Billy Thompson, Broncos cheerleaders, and Miles the Mascot. They will also be able to collect autographs, take photos, enter a raffle for Broncos prizes, view the team's Super Bowl trophies and sign a Broncos flag. Mayor Gregg Palmer will be presented with a Broncos Country flag for Grand Junction to display. Mesa State College football players will be on hand to provide football activities for the kids.

The 90-minute event will be recorded, and the footage will be shown at one of this season's home games and the citizen-signed flag will be simultaneously hung at Mile High Stadium's INVESCO Field in Denver and will remain there for years to come.

Please plan to attend and let's show them that Grand Junction really is Broncos Country!
