1. Call to Order – Special Meeting

2. Public Comment: Limit of three minutes per person

During the “Citizen’s Comments” portion of this open meeting, we will call you to come to the microphone and provide your comments. In order to promote a civil discussion, and honor the right to differing opinions, members of the audience are asked to refrain from exhibiting expressions of support or opposition such as cheering, booing, yelling out, etc. Staff or board members will not respond to questions asked, and all comments must be delivered in a respectful way. Please limit your comments to three minutes. Please begin with stating your name and address. After Citizen comment, we will move into the rest of our agenda where discussion will only be among board members and staff of the Pool Partners.
