111.01 SUMMARY
This directive describes the Department’s organizational structure, policy and principles which guide that structure.

111.02 DEFINITIONS
ORGANIZATION – The arrangement of both sworn and civilian personnel and other resources that facilitates the accomplishment of identified goals and objectives.

111.03 ORGANIZATION PRINCIPLES
The following organization principles guide the Department’s organizational policy.

- TASKS – Tasks that are similar or related in purpose, process or method are grouped together in one or more units under the control of one person.

- SPECIALIZED UNITS – Units are created only when the presence of the unit increases overall departmental capability.

- UNIT RESPONSIBILITY – Units are clearly defined and ensure that all parts of the organization are aware of the unit’s duties, in order to facilitate understanding of expectations and assignment of responsibility.

- CHANNELS OF AUTHORITY AND COMMUNICATION
Established to ensure upward and downward flow of information and proper delegation of authority.

- STRUCTURE AND TERMINOLOGY – Clearly defined to facilitate the understanding of the purpose and responsibilities of the organization.

111.04 ORGANIZATIONAL POLICY
UNITY OF COMMAND – Each individual, unit, and situation is under the immediate control of one person. Unity of command avoids the friction that duplication of direction and supervision can cause.

SPAN OF CONTROL – The span of control, or the number of units or persons under the direct control of a Supervisor, should be large enough to provide economical supervision but not so large that the Supervisor is unable to manage. Except in emergency situations, span of control is limited to a maximum of 12 persons.

111.05 ORGANIZATIONAL ENTITIES

The Department uses specific terminology in its organizational structure. All Directives use these terms as they are defined here.

- DIVISION – (i.e. Operations or Services) A group of more than one section(s), team(s), or unit(s) with department wide responsibility to provide unified service functions and achieve identified goals and objectives.

- SECTION – (i.e. Patrol or Investigations) An entity that has department-wide responsibility for providing a specialized function. A Commander or civilian equivalent may command a Section.

- TEAM – (i.e. Patrol Team) Usually comprised of a Supervisor and other personnel assigned to a specific function.

- UNIT – (i.e. Crime Analysis or Intelligence Officer) A subdivision of a Section. Usually smaller in size than a team and may report to a Division Deputy Chief and/or Commander/Manager/Supervisor with assigned personnel performing a specialized activity.
