THE CITY OF GRAND JUNCTION RECOGNIZED IN 2022 FOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. January 10, 2023 – The City of Grand Junction continues to implement the strategic priorities developed by City Council which are to support economic development, mobility and infrastructure, housing, public safety, and quality of life. The year 2022 brought success in these areas, as well as unique accomplishments by many city departments. The city has been recognized by regional and national professional associations, and accrediting bodies. In addition, Grand Junction has been identified by a number of national media outlets as a notable destination for tourism and an ideal place to live.

"We are very proud of all that our city staff has achieved this past year," stated Greg Caton, city manager. "We are thrilled that the work performed on behalf of the Grand Junction community has received this level of recognition. Having our beautiful city and the surrounding area featured in so many national publications serves to reinforce our belief that Grand Junction is a very special place to visit, live, work, and play," Caton continued.
