Get Connected. Stay Protected.

Colorado VINE (Victim Information & Notification Everyday) is a proactive notification system that sends you an automatic alert via phone, text or email anytime an offender's custody status changes. You will be notified about the release, transfer, escape or death of an offender from this free and anonymous service.

HOW CAN I REGISTER?

- By phone: 888-263-8463
- Online www.colorado-vine.com

(Law enforcement or a victim advocate may also help you register at the time of incident.)

WHEN REGISTERING YOU'LL NEED:

- Offender's name
- Your phone number or email address to receive notifications
- A four-digit PIN when registering to receive a phone or text notification. (Entering the correct PIN and pressing the pound (#) key is the only way to confirm you've received the phone notification)

Keep In Contact

Local law enforcement agencies and the Office of the District Attorney will attempt to keep you informed of the criminal process, which often becomes very lengthy. Please ensure that law enforcement officers and the District Attorney's Office know how you can be reached. Update them with any phone or address changes.

If you feel your rights as a victim have not been addressed, please contact the law enforcement or judicial agency responsible for your case, or your victim advocate who assisted you. If you feel local efforts to obtain your rights failed, you may request assistance through the Colorado Division of Criminal Justice by calling toll free 1-888-282-1080. Remember to first seek resolution at the local level.

The Grand Junction Police Department is committed to protecting the rights of victims. The department's goal is to assure no victim remains alone or uninformed immediately following a crime or traumatic incident.

The Constitution of the State of Colorado and the laws of this State guarantee rights to the victims of the listed crimes. If the victim is deceased or incapacitated, these rights are guaranteed to the victim's spouse, parent, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, significant other or other lawful representative.
